siderable talk about the links for the events next year. The officials were mum, but the arift of discussion was favorable to either a Boston or a Philadelphia course among the players. The argument was the same to favor the two places—that neither had ever had the amsteur event and that it was for the good of the game to seek fresh territory each year. Fred Herreshoff, who won the championship of Vermont there, put in a bid for the Ekwanok Country Club of Manchester as the place. Several others spoke n the same strain, among them W. J. Evans, ship. The greatest objection to the course is that advanced by S. Y. Heebner, that it was not a center of population and every one would have to make a journey to get there. He favors Myopia and also believes in going further West every three years, which new seems to be the order of rotation between the two sections. "Westward the flight of golf takes its way," said Heebner, "and we must no longer stop our journeys at Chicago." The West may have the women's tournanent next year for the asking, but it is underment next year for the asking, but it is understood there is no club eager for it. The Atlantic City Country Club is preferred by many as a neutral ground, accessible from all cities, and there has as yet never been a large tournament there for women. The open may go to the Englewood Golf Club, the newly elected associate member.

There was an outery among some of the Western players over the vote of the U.S. G. A. to give a championship trophy to the intercollegists Golf Association, on two groundsthat t was unauthorized and that the colleges boys disoriminated against Western colleges. As to the first kick, the U.S. G. A. may do anything it deems best for the improvement of the game, but the second is without any justification until a Western college has asked and been refused admittance to the intercollegists Golf Association. The Western golfers are in the lead at all of the Eastern college—a fact that makes the charge of favoritism a strange one.

Play has been concluded for the president's cup on the links of the Hollywood Golf Club. It was fought out at handicap match play between the following eight contestants: W. Liebman, 8; J. Regenburger, 4; J. Campbell Phillips, 4; G. Limbeck, 12; J. J. O'Donobue, Jr., 8; F. E. Henderson, 4; E. Stern, 12; H. Blumenthal, 8. The results were:

First Round—Regenburger beat Limbeck 6 up and 4 to play; Phillips beat Limbeck 6 up and 4 to play; O'Donobue beat Henderson, 2 up and 1 to play. Semi-anal Round—Phillips beat Regenburger, 8 up and 5 to play; O'Donobue beat Blumenthal, 5 up and 4 to play. Final Round—Phillips beat O'Donobue, 8 up and 1 to play.

George Pearson, the Newark Golf Cub professional, whose methodical playing has arned for him the title of human golf mahine, has been at it again. In a recent match with Jack Jolly, the machine, which never once slipped a cog, registered 38 going out and 33 coming home for a total of 68, thereby lowering the course record three strokes.

GLEN COVE, Aug. 13.—Rain interfered with the golf at the Nassau Club yesterday and only two cards were turned in in the handicap against bogey, the best being that of S. P. Hopkins, 1 up and the second C. A. Dunning's, 2 up. The following members posted scores in the qualifying round for the C. M. Pratt cup, which ended to-day, the rounds to be played during next week: Hopkins, 80, 18—70: Travers, 69 plus 2—71: Nichols, 89, 18—71: C. A. Dunning, 80, 7—73: Whitney, 80, 6—74; H. L. Pratt, 88, 11—75: Whitney, 80, 6—74; H. L. Pratt, 88, 11—75: C. Dunning, 91, 18—75: Filler, 89, 14—75: Hadden, 92, 15—77; H. W. Maxwell, 87, 9—78: Allen, 96, 18—78: Gates, 88, 10—79; Buseh, 94, 15—79; Adams, 95, 15—80; Loring, 92, 12—80; Cowpertwaite, 99, 15—84

Members of the Englewood Golf Club became active again in a competitive way by playing in a boggey handican sweepstakes on Saturday. The affair resulted in a tie between George T. Case and E. W. Buck, who with handicaps of 10 and 9 respectively mished all even with boggy. The scores:

George T. Case, 10, all square: E. W. Buck, 9, all square: S. F. Leherts, 8, 1 down; W. B. Banks, 8, 2 down; C. T. Small, 4, 4 down; W. E. P. Moore, 8, 6 down; C. Starbuck, 16, 8 down; F. H. Starbuck, 6, 7 down; George Graham, 8, 7 down.

Before the flitting of the players and golf omicials from Wheaton last Saturday after the samteur championship there was considered talk about the links for the syntage want to A. H. Thomas, with 76 net, alded by a sixteen stroke handleap. The play—off for the J. E. O'Donohue cup was also in order. The summary follows:

Class A. Handleap—C. W. Sparke, 8s. 3—79;
C. H. Kirk, 8s. 4s. 8; J. A. Janin, 87, 5—82; W. A. Manillon, 91, 8—85;

O'Donohue Cup—Thomas beat Dennelly, 8 up and 3 to play; Jain beat Thompson, 3 up and 2 to play; Jain beat Thompson, 3 up and 3 t

Lambers won from Failogan by default.

Class A and B handicaps kept the Roseville golfers busy on Saturday. B. H. Lockett has been playing so well of late that the committee placed him at plus 3, and even that failed to stop this long driver, who returned a gross score of 84. This penalty brought his net total up to 87, but he won by a margin of five strekes over the second man. D. H. Van Ness led the B division. The scores:

Class A—3, H. Lockett, 84 plus 8—87; R. H. McIntosh, 86, 6—87; J. L. Teppin, 8, 6—82; E. W. Plerson, 167, 13—85; W. W. Lee, 107, 10—97; A. W. Braw, 108, 10—98.

chester as the place. Several others spoke in the same strain, among them W. J. Evans, Jay S. Jones and Jerome D. Travers. The Egans said they would like to visit the ceurse, of which they had heard such good reports, and T. M. Sherman also seemed to like the notion.

"If the tournament is to remain a summer fixture," remarked F. Oden Horstman, an unprejudiced critic, "I have a strong idea that Ekwanok should be the place. I agree with the Oxford and Cambridge players who were here, that it is a splendid inland course."

The Ekwanok Country Club is only an allied member of the U. S. G. A., but it is eligible in every way for associate membership. The greatest objection to the course is that advanced by S. Y. Heebner, that it

Stimulated, perhaps, by the visit of the Marylebone Club of London, the cricket games played in this locality on Saturday were witnessed by large crowds and much interest was taken in the championship games of the Metropolitan League and New York the Metropolitan League and New York Cricket Association series.

The principal league contest took place at the Parade Grounds, Prospect Park, where Staten Island Team A played the Brooklyn Wanderers. At one time the Wanderers seemed to have the game well in hand, for they had captured a of the visitors wickets for 15 runs, but the Staten Island eleven played a good uphill game and eventually won by 31 runs. F. F. Kelly with 23, W. D. Hickie with 20 and J. W. Toone with 19 were the best men for the winners, while A. Gunn, E. O. Challenger and J. Wood played well for the Wanderers.
